NOTE: No definitive statement on the precise legal status of Indian Reserve and Settlement lands can be made without extensive enumeration of particular cases. In general terms, Indian Reserve land is set apart by order-in-council in accordance with the provisions of a particular treaty between the Crown and an Indian Band. An Indian Settlement is situated on Crown Land officially listed as an Indian Settlement, but to which the Band cannot claim title. Those additional Indian Communities shown on this map are simply some distinct centres of Indian

NOTE: The distribution of individual languages is shown by a code of abbreviations. Coloured areas on the map do not necessarily indicate areas of occupancy or travel by Indians; they are exclusively intended to identify the major linguistic groups to which the contained reserves, settlements and communities belong.
