- 1 Whereas the University of Toronto Press is undertaking to publish the above volume, including the contribution noted of which the undersigned is Author, the latter assigns to the Press the exclusive world rights to the contribution in its present, or substantially its present, form. The Press, in turn, grants to the Author the right of republication in any book of which he is the exclusive author or editor, subject only to his giving proper credit to the original publication by the Press.
- 2 The Author guarantees that the contribution furnished for the volume has not been published previously elsewhere, or that if it has been previously published in whole or in part, written permission has been obtained by him for its publication in this volume. The Author agrees to provide copy for the acknowledgment of permissions (should these be required) with his manuscript.
- 3 The Press will perform the usual services of manuscript editing, subject to the approval of the Volume Editors.
- 4 In order to protect both Author and publisher from unauthorized use of the material, the Author agrees to refer to the Press any subsequent requests to publish the contribution or a substantial portion thereof in other volumes or in journals.

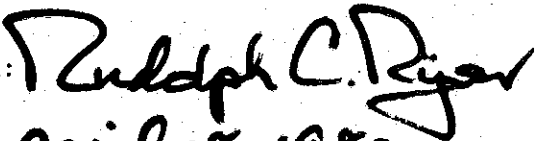

- 5 The Press will normally exact a standard fee for reprinting when granting subsidiary rights (except as noted in 1 above), the amount of this fee to be fixed by the Press from time to time; this fee will be divided equally between the Press and the Native American Studies Department, University of Lethbridge.
- 6 The Author shall receive two (2) free copies of the published volume (in paperback) and may buy additional copies by direct order to the Press (identifying himself as a contributor) at 40 per cent discount from the retail price.

The parties hereto agree upon the foregoing terms for themselves and their respective executors, administrators, assigns, or successors.

DATE:

Dear Mr. Ryser:

Would you please complete one of the enclosed permission to publish forms from the University of Toronto Press and return it to me in the near future. Please retain the other copy for your own use.

At this point in time, the University of Toronto Press is looking at a publication date of August or September for the book.

Sincerely yours,

Leroy Little Bear
Associate Professor
