Mon cher ami,

Comment vous portez-vous? I have enclosed for your examination certain materials relevant to your participation in the Indigenous Political & Legal Roundtable discussions to be held in Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada on 20, July, 1982. I apologize for not having these materials translated into french. By the time you receive this letter you should have already received your airline tickets.

The World Council of Indigenous Peoples is scheduling a meeting of its Executive Council in Regina. I hope you will be able to attend. Than you for your kind willingness to participate in the Roundtable discussions.

Croyez en l'expression de mes sentiments distingués.

Rudolph C. Ryser
