

Reply to: Special Assistant to the President
728 212th Pl. S.W.
Lynnwood, Washington
98036
206/775/1007

8 October, 1982

Mr. Kojo Bentsi-Enchill
International Human Rights Division
PCRD Foundation
320 East 43rd Street
New York, New York
10017

Dear Mr. Bentsi-Enchill:

This letter and the enclosed materials are sent in response to your recent telephone calls regarding the World Council of Indigenous Peoples. Please find the following enclosures:

1. WCIP: Plan of Action
2. Background Information on the WCIP
3. The WCIP's Submission to UN EcoSoc concerning the UN Third Development Decade
4. Tribal Political Status: Finding a Place for Indigenous Peoples in the Family of Nations
5. WCIP: Declaration on Human Rights. Second General Assembly Sami Land, Kiruna, Sweden. August 1977.
6. "Indigenous Freedom Now" has become a Working Plan. WCIP Final Communique, Third General Assembly Canberra, Australia. May, 1981.
7. News Clipping: "Small headquarters surprise to visiting WCIP President" The Lethbridge Herald, Sept. 15, 1981.
8. WCIP: International Covenant on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Third General Assembly Draft, April 28, 1981.
9. National Congress of American Indians, Resolution: Indian Crisis in Central America, May 26, 1982.

I have attempted to supply you with a wide array of organizational and substantive material. As you can see by the range of materials the WCIP has a broad scope consistent with the complex concerns of a highly diverse population in the world. I would point out that the WCIP is strongly committed to strengthening the role of indigenous communities, national organizations and its regional organizations. As you may note, WCIP President Jose Carlos Morales M. clearly reflects this emphasis in his statements to the press (See #7 above). This view is similarly emphasized in the WCIP plan of operation five year budget.

Hoping to have filled your request, I look forward to hearing from you again soon. Please extend my best wishes to Tim Coulter when you see him in Washington D.C. I am sorry I will be unable to attend the Indian Law Resource Center's conference on Multi-national Corporations since we lack the funds to do so. I hope you will have a chance to read my paper: "The World Bank's New Indigenous Policy: A Change in International Economic Development Strategies" if you attend that conference.

Again, thank you for your interest in the World Council of Indigenous Peoples.

Yours very sincerely,

RUDOLPH C. FYSER
Special Assistant to the President

cc. President Jose Carlos Morales M.
San Jose, Costa Rica

Enclosures.

Reply to: Special Assistant to the President
728 212th Pl. S.W.
Lynnwood, Washington
98036
206/775/1007

8 October, 1982

Mr. Kojo Bentsi-Enchill
International Human Rights Division
FORD Foundation
320 East 43rd Street
New York, New York
10017

Dear Mr. Bentsi-Enchill:

This letter and the enclosed materials are sent in response to your recent telephone calls regarding the World Council of Indigenous Peoples. Please find the following enclosures:

1. WCIP: Plan of Action
2. Background Information on the WCIP
3. The WCIP's Submission to UN EcoSoc concerning the UN Third Development Decade
4. Tribal Political Status: Finding a Place for Indigenous Peoples in the Family of Nations
5. WCIP: Declaration on Human Rights. Second General Assembly Sami Land, Kiruna, Sweden. August 1977.
6. "Indigenous Freedom Now" has become a Working Plan. WCIP Final Communique, Third General Assembly Canberra, Australia. May, 1981.
7. News Clipping: "Small headquarters surprise to visiting WCIP President" The Lethbridge Herald, Sept. 15, 1981.
8. WCIP: International Covenant on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Third General Assembly Draft, April 28, 1981.
9. National Congress of American Indians, Resolution: Indian Crisis in Central America, May 26, 1982.

I have attempted to supply you with a wide array of organizational and substantive material. As you can see by the range of materials the WCIP has a broad scope consistent with the complex concerns of a highly diverse population in the world. I would point out that the WCIP is strongly committed to strengthening the role of indigenous communities, national organizations and its regional organizations. As you may note, WCIP President Jose Carlos Morales M. clearly reflects this emphasis in his statements to the press (See #7 above). This view is similarly emphasized in the WCIP plan of operation five year budget.

Hoping to have filled your request, I look forward to hearing from you again soon. Please extend my best wishes to Tim Coulter when you see him in Washington D.C. I am sorry I will be unable to attend the Indian Law Resource Center's conference on Multi-national Corporations since we lack the funds to do so. I hope you will have a chance to read my paper: "The World Bank's New Indigenous Policy: A Change in International Economic Development Strategies" if you attend that conference.

Again, thank you for your interest in the World Council of Indigenous Peoples.

Yours very sincerely,

RUDOLPH C. RYSER
Special Assistant to the President

cc. President Jose Carlos Morales M.
San Jose, Costa Rica

Enclosures.