

270 DP 12041

Mura®
AIATSIS Collections Catalogue

Information
Audiovisual Archives
Library
Family History
Native Title

- Search All
Collections
- Search
Audiovisual
Archives
- Search
Library
Collections
- Search
Family
History
Resources
- Browse
Search
Terms
- Research
Resources
- Contact
Us
- Staff
only

— Previous — — Next —

Full View From Catalog	record 1 of 1 for search author or collector "adams, christine" S 578 Ethics, power and politics in Aboriginal health research Adams, Christine HOLDINGS: 1 copy available in IN_SERIAL 1 copy total in all locations	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>
---	--	--

Local call number S 578

Personal Author Adams, Christine

Title Ethics, power and politics in Aboriginal health research /
Christine Adams

Publication info 2002

Physical descrip p. [44]-64

Bibliography note Bibliography: p.60-64

Annotation Examination of the concept of the "community" as applied to contemporary Aboriginal identity; attitudes to research and research ethics - includes history of the development of research ethics ; case study - mental health and depression in the Canberra region; nature of the Canberra Indigenous community; experience of consultation; argues that ethical protocols need to recognize the importance of the intra-Indigenous power relations

Topical Research - Ethics

Topical Social Identity

Topical Mental health

Topical Social behaviour

Place Canberra (ACT 2155-16)

Source Asia Pacific Journal of Anthropology Vol.3, no.2 (Oct. 2002), p. [44]-64

Collection Print

Call Number	Copies	Material	Location
S 578	1	Analytic	In serial