Sub: An appeal to save the Chakma and other tribes of the Chittagong Hill Tracts from the total annihilation by the Bangladesh Government.

Dear Brother,

May I present to you a report, "An account of further atrocities (murder, rape, looting, arsoning etc) and gross violations of Human Rights in the Chittagong Hill Tracts by Bangladesh Forces from January 1986 to July 1986", sent by the Jana Samhati Samiti, the only political party in the Chittagong Hill Tracts (CHT), on 25th September 1986.

The Bangladesh armed forces and the Bengali settlers have not only carried out Matiranga, Panchari, Khagrachari and Dighimala massacres but they have also committed countless genocidal and racial crimes everywhere in the region. This report has recorded 280 cases of gross human rights violations starting from rape to murder. Some of these diabolical activities of the Bangladeshi regime are listed below:

A. MURDER

1. On March 17, 1986, the Bangladesh army personnel (305th Brigade) of Fakirachara camp, raided the village of Muralyabap Chara, a concentration camp, in Subalong within Barkal Upazilla, tortured, raped and killed the residents. For example, (i) Miss Gurimala Chakma, 14, daughter of Mr. Harilal Chakma, and (ii) Miss Milaso Chakma, 15, daughter of Mr. Hangotya Chakma, were gang-raped and then shot dead by the Bengali soldiers.
2. In the first week of July 1986, the Bangladesh army men of Hatimara camp and the Bengali settlers launched genocidal campaigns in 7 villages in Mamik Chari Upazilla - Pota Chara, Sonkhola, Remna Adam, Riomorong, Dheppua, Fakira Nala and Dulu Adam -, in 3 villages in Laxmi Chari Upazilla - Laxmi Chari, Dulu Para and Kalapani -, and in Guimara village of Guimara Upazilla. They stole stocks, looted valuable things, burnt houses, desecrated and destroyed Buddhist temples, beat Buddhist monks, raped women, and tortured and murdered both men and women. For instance, on 2nd July 1986, (i) Mr. Maney Marma, 70, of Fakira Nala village in Halfchari Mouza, was hacked to death by the Bengali settlers. On the same day, the Bengali settlers butchered Mr. Paichai Marma, 70, a shopkeeper of Hatimara Bazar, of Moradulu village.

On July 3, 1986, the Bengali settlers killed the following tribals: The women were raped and then murdered.

- i). Mrs. Aprumah Marma, 45, wife of Mr. Kala Aung Marma, of Laxmichari village.
- ii). Mrs. Mishu Prue Marma, 26, wife of Mr. Chathong Marma, of Dulu Para village.
- iii). Miss Minu Prue Marma, 17, daughter of Mr. Kyo Hla Prue Marma, of Dulu Para village.

3. On 12th July 1986, five Jummas were bringing rice from their relatives in Boradam village within Longudu Upazilla. On the way at a place in between Boiragi Bazar and Gulsakhali, the Bengali immigrants robbed them of their belongings and then murdered them. The victims were as follows:

 - v). Master Bharat Mohan Chakma, 16, son of Mr. Tagara Chakma, of Guichari village in Longudu Upazilla.
4. On July 21, 1986, six Jumma men and a Jumma girl were returning home from the market. When they arrived at Shontilla at about 12.00 hrs, the Bengali infiltrators attacked and killed all Jumma men. Then the culprits gang-raped Miss Noromi Chakma, 14, daughter of Mr. Chandra Chakma, of Mangaldhon Karbari Para village in Panchari Upazilla. When she was going to be killed then a Bengali suggested that he wanted to marry her after converting her to Islam. He took her to his home but his wife helped Miss Noromi Chakma to flee to her home. She disclosed the incident to the villagers who in turn reported the matter to the Army Zonal Commander at Panchari. An Army Investigation Team was sent and the Jumma girl identified the culprits but no action was taken against the murderers. The names of the victims are shown below. They were all from Panchari Upazilla.
 - i). Mr. Jatindra Chakma, 32, son of Mr. Monchan Chakma, of Jibanaswa Para village.

them with machine guns. At that time, Miss Kajola Devi Chakma, 17, daughter of Mr. Kshetra Bihari Chakma, of Harin Ghat Chara, was inside the house and she was hit by bullets. Although she was in great pain, the Bengali armymen took her to the Primary School at Jaduga Chara village in Naniachar Upazilla and gang-raped her. 4. On July 7, 1986, some Bengali settlers of Betchari Mukh village in Khagrachari Upazilla, set fire to their own houses and then reported to the Betchari Mukh army camp that the members of the Shanti Bahini had burnt their dwellings. On receiving this report, Major Sharif, Subedar Akhtar and their troops (30th East Bengal Regiment) attacked the innocent tribal people at Betchari Mukh and unleashed a reign of terror in the area. The Jumma people were beaten, tortured and the women were raped. For instance, Miss Chibachogi Chakma, 14, daughter of Mr. Kalo Chakma, was raped by the Bengali invaders.

5. On June 24, 1986, (i) Mr. Tokkhula Chakma, son of Mr. Ananda Chakma, of no. 3 Rubber Plantation in Lamba Chara, (ii) Mr. Monoranjan Chakma, of no. 1 Rubber Plantation in Ghulchari, and (iii) Mr. Nalini Chakma, son of Mr. Dubramoni Chakma, of Ghulchari, were arrested by the army personnel when they came to collect their pigs from their native village which they had to leave due to the oppression committed by the Bangladesh armed forces and the Bengali settlers. These Jummas have been detained in the army camp without charge or trial. Their fates still are not known.

E. EXTORTION AND ROBBERY

1. On May 7, 1986, an army unit (26th East Bengal Regiment) of Barpul Para camp, attacked the villagers of Bakchhari Thoom Adam in Naniachar Upazilla, for boycotting the May 7, 1986, General Election in Bangladesh. These invading oppressors beat the Jummas en masse severely and stole all their valuables such as ornaments, money, rice, fowls, goats and cattle worth Taka 60,000/-. (i) Mr. Gogon Chandra Chakma, son of Mr. Kalashesh Chakma, (ii) Mr. Raj Chandra Chakma, 30, son of Mr. Jurodhan Chakma, (iii) Mr. Sadhan Chandra Chakma, 40, son of Mr. Rangashesh Chakma, and many other villagers were robbed of their belongings by the Bangladesh army.

In addition to routine torture, the first victim was given electric shocks on his genitals. The second victim was kicked in the face, water was forced into his mouth and nose, and his testicles were squeezed. As a result of such beastly torture, he lost consciousness three times during the interrogation. The Bengali officer released them on 13th June 1986 only after extorting Taka 10,000/- from them.

3. On June 29, 1986, the army authorities of Naniachar camp, ordered the local Jumma leaders to assemble at Kattaltali Primary School. In the meeting, the military commanders criticised bitterly the Jumma people's movement for self-determination and warned the Jumma people not to support the Shanti Bahini. At the end of the meeting, the military men arrested six innocent Jumma participants and took them to the army camp for interrogation and torturing. (i) Mr. Mukunda Lal Chakma, 55, son of Mr. Kalikinkar Chakma, of Bhangamura village in Naniachar Upazilla, and (ii) Mr. Smritimoy Dewan, 45, son of late Madhav Chandra Dewan, of Kattaltali village in Naniachar Upazilla were among the captives. There they were tortured, hung upside down, and water was forced in to their mouths and noses.
2. On 16th March 1986, Major Mustafizur Rahman of the Bangladesh army (26th East Bengal Regiment, Barabunnya Zone) rounded up Mr. Ananda Chakma, 45, son of Mr. Hela Bujjya Chakma, of Barkalak village in Longudu Upazilla, and took him to the Tunyachari Buddhist Vihara (temple) and tortured him inhumanly in order to force him to confess that he had contact with the Shanti Bahini. This army officer desecrated the temple and said to the monks and Jummas - "(The) Britishers couldn't make these Kafirs (non-believers) accept Christianity but we are going to force them to embrace Islam".
3. Lt. Col. Mohammad Jalal Abed (Commanding Officer of 41st East Bengal Regiment, Bangladesh army), Major Khairul Alam (14th Battalion of the Bangladesh Rifles in Marishya), Humayun Kabir (Adjutant of the Village Defence Party), Hasan Ali (Village Defence Party Commander), Amirul Karim (Upazilla Nirbahi Officer), and Haider Ali (a resident near Baghaichari Upazilla Office), organised communal riots in Lalyaghona, Ugalchari, Tulaban and Jibanga Chara areas of Baghaichari Upazilla on May 8, 1986.

The Bengali settlers who carried out the violence were led by (i) Shamsul Huda, Chairman of Rupakari Union Parishad (Council), a resident of Battali in Baghaichari Upazilla, (ii) Azizur Rahman, a contractor, a resident of Jibanga Chara in Baghaichari Upazilla, (iii) Hafiz Mohammad Majhee of Kasalong Bazar in Baghaichari Upazilla, (iv) Asghar Ali of Ugalchari in Baghaichari Upazilla, (v) Sukkar of Ugalchari in Baghaichari Upazilla, and other Bengali leaders.

Under the guidance of the Bangladesh armed forces, the Bengali immigrants attacked the tribal villages, looted stocks and all valuable articles, burnt houses, raped the tribal women, tortured the Jumma people, desecrated the Buddhist temples and tortured the Buddhist monks. The Navajyoti Buddhist Vihara (temple) in the Lalyaghona village, for instance, was plundered and desecrated. The invaders kicked and broke all the four images of the Buddha in the temple including the one brought from Thailand. They beat the Director of the temple, Rev. Prajna Sara Bhikkhu, so severely that he fell unconscious. He was also not allowed to take food and water.

4. On 2nd July 1986, the members of the Bangladesh army from Hatimara camp and the Bengali settlers raided the house of Mr. Thoi Aung Prue Marma, 72, son of Mr. Chai O Hra Marma, of Fakira Nala in Hafchari Mouza within Manikchari Upazilla, stole 50 quintals of rice, and set his house and Buddhist temple on fire.

G. THE PLIGHT OF JUMMA REFUGEES AFTER DEPORTATION FROM MIZORAM

As a result of massacres in the Bhusan Chara area in May 1984, over 4,000 Jumma refugees took shelter at Tibira Ghat and Tagalak Bag in the State of Mizoram of India. On 1st January 1986, they were handed over, against their will, to the members of the Bangla Desh Rifles (BDR). The BDR men put them in motor launches and divided them into two groups - all men in the upper deck and all women and children on the lower deck. Then a military commander told the refugees - "You dirty Kafirs (non-believers), there is nobody in the world who can save you now from us. Why did you go to bloody India? Do you think bloody India can save you right now?". After he finished his speech, the Bengali soldiers attacked the refugees. They stripped clothes from all women and girls and gang-raped them. The male refugees were beaten and tortured. It is, perhaps, worth noting that the refugees were not rehabilitated because their ancestral villages and farmlands had already been appropriated by the Bengali settlers. Their fates are not known.

The Bangladesh armed forces and the Bengali settlers are exterminating the Jumma people systematically because they want the land and not the indigenous people of the CHT. This pogrom will continue unabated until the international community intervenes in the region and compels the Bangladeshi regime to implement the following measures:

1. Removal of all Bengali settlers from the CHT.
2. Withdrawal of all Bangladesh armed forces including the non-tribal police force from the CHT.
3. Retention of the Chittagong Hill Tracts Regulation of 1900 and constitutional provision restricting the amendment of the Regulation.
4. Autonomy for the CHT with its own legislature and recognition of the Jumma people's right to self-determination.
5. Deployment of the UN Peace Keeping Force in the CHT and implementation of this programme under the auspices of the UNO.

The Jumma people are as helpless as children in the face of the fundamentally hostile Bengali invasion. They will not survive without your help. I appeal fervently to you to take all necessary actions in order to liberate the Jumma people from the racial and genocidal tyrannies of the Bangladeshi regime. With my best regards.

Longudu, in a bid to make a ground for attacking the Chakma villages, fired towards the Chakma villages on a false pretext of being attacked by the Shanti Bahinis. The Chakma inhabitants had to take shelter in the jungles to save their lives. The tribal leaders lodged a complaint with the army authorities that the firing incident was a motivated design of the infiltrators to create communal riots and to uproot the tribals from their ancestral lands. After an inquiry, it was found that the firing incident was pre planned by the VDPs as there was no presence of Shanti Bahinis in the Chakma villages when the incident occurred. The army authorities took no action against the VDP personnels for their wantonly act.
